

University of Wisconsin - Madison
Division of International Studies
 261 Bascom Hall, 500 Lincoln Drive, Madison, WI 53706
 Telephone: 608/262-2851 Fax: 608/262-6998

Washington, D.C. Semester in International Affairs
2009 Application Form

DEADLINE: March 13, 2009

NOTE TO APPLICANT: Please be sure you have read the online information about this particular internship to ensure a clear understanding of both the eligibility and the internship course requirements before you submit your application. Advanced coursework in comparative politics, international relations, or foreign policy may be used to meet the prerequisite requirements for this course.

Additional materials to be submitted with application:

- Current transcript
- Résumé
- Writing sample (no more than 2-3 pages)
- Letter of recommendation from a faculty member

Note: Letter should be delivered in a sealed envelope with the recommending faculty member's signature across the back seal.

Applicant's Name: _____ Date: _____

Mailing Address: _____

 _____ Zip code: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

University ID#: _____

Expected Date of Graduation: _____

Major(s): _____

G.P.A.: _____

Name of faculty member writing letter of recommendation: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

Please answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper.

1. Participants in the Washington, D.C. Semester in International Affairs are expected to have completed some coursework in the field of international studies before participating in the program. Please indicate what courses you have taken or are currently taking that fall into this category. Examples might be comparative politics, comparative history, area studies, statistics/research design, international health, international relations, languages, or international business. Please indicate the grade you received.
2. Please indicate language skills in terms of years studied and levels of written, oral and reading competencies.
3. What other skills, experience or knowledge make you a good candidate for this program? You may wish to consider past volunteer and/or work experience or other experiences such as traveling, living or working abroad. This information assists us in matching you with an appropriate organization.*
4. Why do you want to be an intern in this program? What do you hope to learn or gain from this experience?
5. What specific areas of interest do you have in global/international studies or foreign policy?
6. Should you be selected to participate in this program, what do you think will be the most rewarding aspect(s) for you? What challenges do you think you might encounter?

Please submit application and transcript to the address below before 4 pm on March 13, 2009. Should you be selected as a finalist for the program you will be contacted in order to schedule an interview. Decision letters will be mailed in early April.

Dr. Cynthia Williams
Director of External Relations
Division of International Studies
University of Wisconsin-Madison
261 Bascom Hall, 500 Lincoln Drive
Madison, WI 53706

For more information contact Cynthia Williams at cwilliam@wisc.edu or (608) 262-3929

While every effort is made to place students in internships that match his or her interests, the Division of International Studies is unable to guarantee specific internship placements.*

The mission of the Division of International Studies is to catalyze UW-Madison efforts to educate globally competent professionals and citizens through cutting-edge teaching and research, and outreach to partners on campus, around the state and the world.